It's Time for Discovery.

Governor's Palace, Colonial Williamsburg
Patriots Colony, located in one of the country’s top retirement destinations, is a continuing care retirement community exclusively for those who share the common bond of service to our country. If you’re looking for an unparalleled retirement lifestyle surrounded by great friends and countless amenities, look no further than Patriots Colony.

Discover Williamsburg

As the heart of the historic triangle, Williamsburg is steeped in national history and centuries of significance. Today, this lively, vibrant city is full of current events, festivals and activities that commemorate its prestigious past and signal a promising future.

Access to Military Bases

The Hampton Roads region is also home to nine military bases, including Fort Eustis, Langley Air Force Base, Yorktown Naval Weapons Station and the Coast Guard Station in Yorktown. All the amenities of large bases are at your fingertips.

A Climate Ripe for Exploration

You’ll enjoy four beautiful seasons, including a breathtaking fall and bright, blooming spring. It truly is the perfect setting for beginning life’s next great adventure. Life in Williamsburg embraces a wide variety of interests, including the College of William and Mary, Jamestown, Colonial Williamsburg, Yorktown, fantastic restaurants, shopping and educational pursuits. The climate is just right for gardening, and it is a golfer’s heaven with championship golf courses minutes away.

Virginia Beach, Richmond and Washington, D.C. are an easy commute, and the major metropolitan cities of the Northeast make for an exciting nearby getaway.
Discover Patriots Colony

Set on 90 acres of protected woodlands, Patriots Colony strikes the perfect balance of a serene, quiet community complemented by the conveniences of city living. You can relax on your porch watching wildlife during the day and catch a symphony orchestra in the evening.

Share Stories. Share Life.

Patriots Colony offers residents the unique opportunity to make their home among fellow officers and civilian employees of the federal government, people who understand and share your life experiences. The stories swapped around the fireplace and during happy hour never get old, and it seems there’s always a new tale of courage or service to hear.

Our residents share a camaraderie that fosters genuine community. Rank is left at the gate, and you’ll be welcomed at Patriots Colony by friends and neighbors who are eager to get to know you as an individual.

A Community of Luxury

Life at Patriots Colony is a first class experience. The Cannon Community Center boasts the dining, social, educational and wellness opportunities that make it easy to never want to leave our campus.

You can enjoy a casual meal in the bistro or sit down to a delicious chef-inspired meal in our beautiful formal dining room. Unwind during happy hour or enjoy continental breakfast in Archie’s Tavern, a resident favorite. There are also plenty of spacious areas available for residents to reserve for private family or business events.

Cannon Community Center

The community center has all the resources residents need to stay active and well. An indoor heated saltwater pool is used for water aerobics, and the inviting hot tub is a perfect haven for relaxation. You can work out in the exercise center with state-of-the-art, air-pressurized equipment and take an exercise class in the fitness studio. Whatever you enjoy, Patriots Colony provides the opportunities you need to stay healthy and independent.

You can also stimulate your mind in the library (featuring books from some of Patriots Colony’s own residents), by attending one of our many educational presentations or crafting in the woodshop. The billiards and poker lounge sets the stage for some friendly competitions, and the beauty and barber shop offers residents even more options for supremely convenient living.
Patriots Colony offers:

- Formal dining room, Liberty Lounge bistro and Archie's Tavern
- Body Shop Fitness Center and Aerobic Center
- Indoor saltwater pool and hot tub
- Massage suite
- Billiards room
- Two hobby shops, woodworking studio and community garden
- Beauty and barber shop

A Home for Every Taste

We offer multiple independent housing options for our residents, and there’s sure to be a home that meets your individual needs.

There are also many customizable features that help transform your home into exactly what you envision. Our independent living options include apartments, villas and freestanding homes, with many floor plans to choose from.

Ninety spacious apartment homes are situated in a tasteful colonial-style building and are connected to the community center by an enclosed walkway.

Sunny single-story villas enclose community courtyards where residents can mingle within their own neighborhood. Our freestanding Greenspring Homes come as large as 2,850 square feet with terraces, decks, sunrooms and garages, as well as numerous upgrade options.

No matter which home suits you best, you’ll enjoy complete interior and exterior maintenance and weekly housekeeping services. Regular deep cleaning can also be scheduled at your convenience.
Discover Peace of Mind

Choosing Patriots Colony means eliminating many of life’s uncertainties. With top quality health services and stable financial backing provided by Riverside Health System, our residents can have peace of mind knowing their needs will be met today and in the future.

Your total wellness is our top priority. We offer a health clinic right on campus, which is available for primary care services, as well as care coordination.

Unparalleled Medical Resources through Riverside

As part of Riverside Health System, Patriots Colony offers residents the highest quality medical care and unmatched support of over 500 physicians, specialists and providers. Riverside takes pride in offering more services for older adults in the Commonwealth of Virginia than any other provider. Whatever your health care needs, you can be confident that Riverside has the experience and resources to provide the care you deserve.

The Ease of LifeCare

As the only LifeCare Community in Williamsburg, Patriots Colony ensures that, if your needs ever change, you will be accommodated within our community at a minimal change in monthly fees. We offer a full continuum of health care, including assisted living, specialized memory support for individuals with Alzheimer’s and other related dementia disorders, 24/7 nursing care and short-term rehabilitation after surgery or illness.

For residents who already have long-term care insurance, we also offer the Residence and Services agreement, which incorporates a discounted entrance fee compared to LifeCare.

At Patriots Colony, you have the security of protecting your financial resources and your long-term health, both valuable benefits of residing in our one-of-a-kind community.
A Lasting Legacy
Common among many residents is their desire to provide peace of mind for their children and loved ones. By moving to Patriots Colony, they eliminate the burden of care for their families, providing the lasting gift of knowing if their health status ever changes, they'll be seamlessly accommodated within the community they already call home, whether in assisted living, skilled nursing or memory support residences.

The Patriots Fund
As an extension of our residents' legacy of generosity and compassion, The Patriots Fund has been established to meet the needs of residents who may, through no fault of their own, experience financial difficulties. Gifts may be tax deductible, and all contributions are used specifically to support qualifying Patriots Colony residents.
